Membership charge

All Red Rope charges are scaled according to income. Your 'income band' is based on your disposable income.

1. Work out your total income from all sources (less tax and national insurance).
2. If you have dependants, one parent/carer per family may subtract a further £20 per week from their income, per dependant (e.g. children)

Then find your band and your charge for a year's membership.

Red Rope is founded on socialist principles and a concept of sharing. The bands are intended as a guide to a minimum subscription. You may adopt a higher band if you feel that is where you should be.
